The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB. Pat. '010 to Wood. To form his arm loops (1, 1a of fig.1 or 13, 14 of fig. 7 with the drag grip 4, 5) of a continuous length of strapping would have been an obvious mechanical expediency, furthermore, to make an article of a continuous or of separate pieces is not deemed to be an unobvious patentable distinction.
